Instructions for Reporting Conduit Transfers

(if under $20,000 per biennium AND not filing electronically)

1. Conduits that transfer contributions to candidates, personal campaign committees, legislative campaign committees, or political party committees are subject to registration and reporting requirements.
2. Conduits are required to file campaign finance reports at the times specified in s.11.20, Stats. The Government Accountability Board has determined that these reports shall consist of:
  - a. Two (2) copies of the dated transmittal letters (required by s.11.06(11)(a), Stats.). One copy will be placed in the file of the registrant receiving the transferred contribution. (See #3 below.)
  - b. A summary report listing the date of the transfer, complete name and address of each recipient, total amount transferred to each recipient in this report period (Column A), and the total amount transferred during the calendar year (Column B).
  - c. A returned contributions schedule (GAB-10 Returns) when applicable. (See #4 below.)
3. All contributions transferred by a conduit must be accompanied by a dated transmittal letter. The transmittal letter shall contain:
  - a. A statement clearly identifying that the contribution is from a conduit.
  - b. The name and address of the recipient to whom contributions are transferred, the date the transfer was made, and the total amount transferred.
  - c. The complete name and address of each individual contributor and the amount of his or her contribution regardless of the amount. The total of all individual contributions reported must equal the total transfer.
  - d. The contributor's occupation and complete name and address of the principal place of employment, when an individual's total contributions to the same recipient exceed $100 cumulatively in the calendar year.
4. If a contribution is returned, lost, or not cashed for other reasons, report these items on the Contributions Returned From Candidates and Committees (GAB-10 Returns). List the name and address of the recipient committee, date of the original contribution, the date it was returned (or you stopped payment on the check), and the amount of the transfer.
5. A conduit must file a Pre-Primary or Pre-Election Report only when a contribution is transferred to a candidate who is in the election during that report period.
6. A conduit must file a Special Report of Late Contribution for Conduits (GAB-4) if it transfers $500 or more to a candidate during the 15-day period prior to the Primary or Election, either in one transaction or cumulatively over the 15-day period.
7. If no contributions are transferred in a continuing report period (January 1-June 30, July 1-December 31), the conduit may file the Postcard Report Form (GAB-10a) indicating no contributions during the report period.
